How to get to Beacon House

Beacon House is located in the north-west of Ipswich, and is accessible by several methods of transport. When you arrive, please report to reception.

By car or motorcycle

Beacon House is close to junction 53 on the A14. After turning onto the A1156 you can travel via Goddard Road or Goddard Road East and Whitehouse Road.
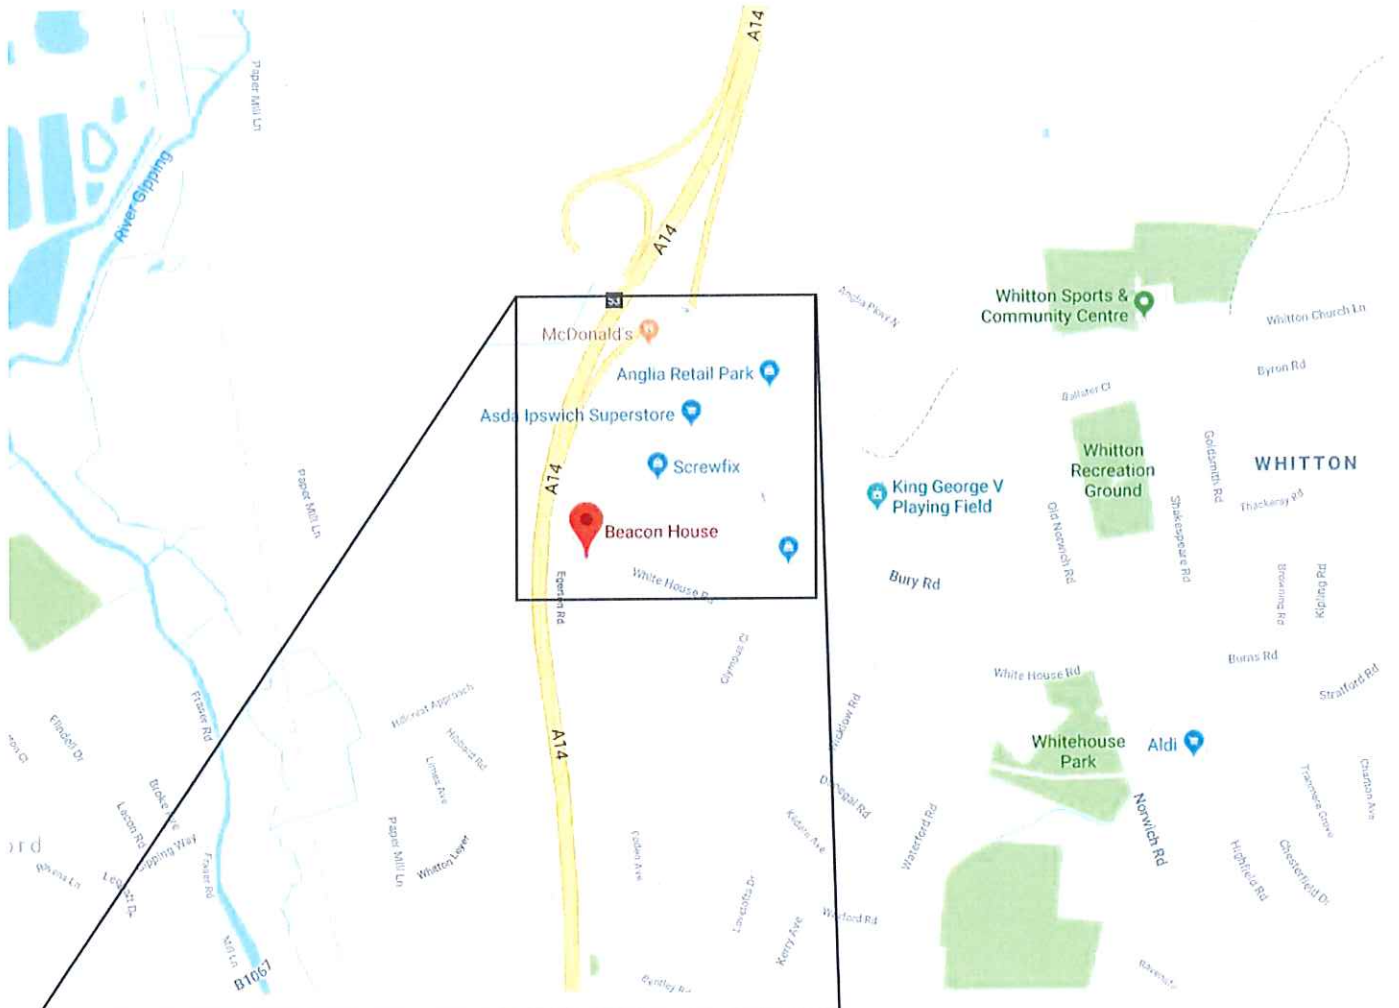

There is a small car park for visitors, but parking is limited please only park in bays marked 26-57. If the visitor car park is full, there is on-street parking in the vicinity.

By public transport

Beacon House is on the route of the 13 and 8 service run by Ipswich Buses, with a stop around 100m from the building.

The route serves the Ranelagh Road stop at the railway station, providing a direct link for people arriving in Ipswich by train. It also stops at the Tower Ramparts bus station in the town centre. Timetables for 13 and 8 can be found on the Ipswich Buses website. www.ipswichbuses.co.uk

Please note that the number on the front of the bus changes from 13 to 8 at Tower Ramparts, meaning you need to catch a 13 bus at the Railway station, but an 8 if you are getting on at Tower Ramparts. The services run with a 12 minute frequency during the day.
